

TWENTY-SECOND YEAR

THE ARIZONA REPUBLICAN, SUNDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 31, 1911.

VOL. XXII. NO. 225.

ABOUT PHOENIX PEOPLE

This department is designed to record weekly happenings of a personal, social, musical and intellectual nature.

The Republican wishes its numerous readers a prosperous and happy New Year and the editor of this department echoes the wish. Association, environment, and possibly a degree of chance, will all enter into the matter to some extent but whether one is at last happy and prosperous depends very largely upon oneself, to quote from a well known poem, "I am the captain of my soul, I am the master of my fate." Whatever may be the result, the writer intends going on doing her best to serve her employer, the public and herself and she thanks all who have so kindly aided her during the past months and asks them to continue their helpfulness in the new year that is just beginning.

10th annual meeting of the Arizona Federation of Women's Clubs.

January 30.
Club House Day.

Mr. Dwight D. Rife is at home for the holiday vacation.

Mr. P. H. Kissane, a prominent business man of Syracuse, N. Y., whose wife is spending the winter at the residence of her brother William M. Smith on Central Ave. N. surprised them all by coming out to spend the Christmas holidays. He will return immediately after New Years. Mrs. Kissane will remain here till March when she will go on to the East and from there to her home in Syracuse.

The annual charity ball given by the Harmony club will occur on January 31, in Melzer hall. Tickets may be purchased from the members. This ball is always well attended and the proceeds are used by the club to aid the needy.

A custom that is growing in congeniality and pleasure to the celebrants, as rapidly as it is growing in age, is the annual event of seeing Father Time carry out one more decrepit year and bring in a lusty new one, hold each New Year's eve at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Barnett E. Marks, 16 N. Tenth avenue. Tonight about 20 friends will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Marks and while away the early hours with song and readings. Just as the bells begin to ring and the whistles to blow, when the rattle is heard in the distance of 1911 and the birth cry of 1912 first echoes in the breeze, the guests who will be partaking of a repast, will rise in their seats and drink a toast to the health, happiness and prosperity of the infant year.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will meet the coming Saturday, January the sixth, at the home of Mrs. Otis E. Young, 1414 W. Adams street. All visiting members are cordially invited to meet the daughters of Marko chapter. Those who are eligible to membership will be made welcome. Members are allowed to bring friends if they choose to do so. The meeting will begin at 2:30. Take the W. Washington street car and get off at either 14th or 15th avenue.

On New Year's night the Country Club will hold one of its delightful balls in the auditorium of the Woman's club building. This is probably the last formal affair to be given by the club outside its own home, as the new bungalow on north Central avenue will soon be completed. The Country club membership is composed of the gayest social set in the city and their informal Saturday afternoon card parties, the large receptions, the frequent hops, the jolly out of door sports of golf and tennis, and the general good fellowship which exists among them, make this club one of the most enjoyable in Phoenix. The ball tomorrow evening will still retain the holiday spirit and it will be reflected in the decorations, among the fern-like branches of the pepper tree will glisten the bright berries and varnished greenness of the Christmas holly.

Mrs. C. M. Cooper of 518 North Sixth street, has had as her guests during the holidays, the Misses Palmyra and Dorothy Tambrino and Nettie McKay, a sister, all of Congress, Arizona, though Miss Dorothy is at present attending the Normal at Tempe. Mrs. Cooper entertained for son, Ralph Moore, Will Gilson, John Stewart, Ernest Bothler and Henry Stewart.

On Friday evening the Y. M. C. A. entertained the boys of the intermediate departments, at a social affair that will long be remembered by the participants. The lads were told to bring their lassies and it was readily demonstrated that the old song which says that "every laddie has a lassie" is a true one. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, only eleven of the boys and their girl friends participated in the luncheon, and played the games, but the twenty-two youngsters had as much fun in the given length of time, as is allowed to any law abiding citizen. After exhausting every other method of entertainment, they made a rummage tour through the kitchen where they devoured the rest of the eatables with all the gusto of youth's hearty appetite.

Ex-governor and Mrs. Joseph H. Kibbey have been entertaining during holiday week, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Myers of Lincoln, Nebraska, who stopped on their way to California for the winter, to spend Christmas with Mrs. Kibbey's cousin, Judge Kibbey.

One of the happiest affairs of the past week, was the neighbor party given Friday afternoon by Mrs. M. E. Saegreant of 649 North Third avenue for her friend Mrs. James Hauxhurst who is leaving in January with her daughter Adele, for California. The guests were all old neighbors who have known one another for the past ten or twelve years and a pleasant afternoon was spent in reminiscences of the days gone by. Mrs. Saegreant was assisted in entertaining guests and in serving refreshments by her daughter Miss Bess. The friends asked to meet Mrs. Hauxhurst were Mesdames Croighton, Warren, I. M. Saegreant, Woolridge, Garnett and L. H. Saegreant.

The Christmas festival at the Woman's club, that was inaugurated in 1910, when the members each bring a pound offering, to be given to some institution for the needy, was most generously remembered on Tuesday by the ladies who belong to the club. The Christmas festival was given by the ladies of the club for the inmates of St. Luke's and the Crittenton homes.

Each department of the club participated in the day's entertainment.

The musical portion furnished the program, the art and history members did the decorating for the occasion, the household economics department served delicious refreshments and the civics-education department saw to the distribution of the pounds contributed by the club.

The program consisted of a song sung by Miss Irene Johnstone in her usual charming manner; two numbers of a Russian song arranged for the piano, violin and cello, played by Mrs. W. E. Defty and her son Dwight Defty and Mrs. H. B. Wilkinson. Though encores are exceptional and as a rule are not indulged in at the club, this selection proved so attractive that the usual custom was discarded for the nonce, and the players very graciously acceded to the applause expressed wishes of the audience, and responded with a composition of Grieg's.

A mandolin and guitar number played by Mrs. Harrison and Mr. Roebuck of the Arizona School of Music and a Christmas reading by Mrs. H. M. Thornton furnished an extremely pleasant afternoon to the members and their invited guests.

The Phoenix friends of D. W. Nickels will have pleasure in his marriage on December 27, to Miss Edith Florence Tanton of Peoria, Illinois. The bride has spent several winters in this city and is well and favorably known to many people here. Mr. Nickels has been engaged in business in this region for a number of years and has hosts of friends who are sending congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Nickels will go to the coast on their honeymoon afterward returning to Phoenix to reside.

One of the pleasant affairs of the past week was the dinner given Christmas night by Miss Marguerite Adams for her house guest Miss Elizabeth Schuch of Chicago who is here for an extended visit. The comfortable country home of the Adams family was the embodiment of holiday gaiety and the dinner was of course delicious. The guests were all personal friends and beside the guest of honor Miss Schuch and the hostess Miss Adams, there were Mrs. and Mrs. Roy Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. John Page, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rowlands, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Atha, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Green, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Craig, Miss Raina Chalmer and Messrs. Chas. McArthur, William McCord, Irvin Miller, Foster Rockwell, Winsor Day, Morris Carpenter and Mrs. J. C. Adams.

The many friends of Mrs. Carl Hayden will learn with regret of her illness during the past week.

Miss Helen Ely spent the holiday week with her friend Lila Hawkins of Prescott.

Mrs. Frank Drescher and little daughter, who have been visiting Mrs. Drescher's parents, will return to their home in Denver on the coming Tuesday.

Mrs. Sims Ely entertained yesterday at her home, 1404 N. First street for Mrs. S. W. Higley who with her daughter Miss Jessie, is here from Long Beach.

Mrs. Margaret Jones of 544 E. Adams street has gone to Los Angeles for the winter, to be near her son Russell who is attending school in that city and to find a suitable school for her daughter Elizabeth.

A number of informal parties have been given the past week for Miss Jessie Higley, who is in the city for the Christmas vacation. She will return to Long Beach in a few days to continue her studies at the high school of that place.

Miss Sharlott Hall spent Christmas week with her parents at Dewey, Arizona.

Two of the delightful affairs of the holiday season, were given on Christmas eve and Christmas night at the Hotel Adams. On the 24th Mr. and Mrs. Sherburne Jenckes entertained Mrs. Jenckes's father and mother, Judge and Mrs. Joseph H. Kibbey, Madame Caroline Kibbey and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Myers of Lincoln, Nebraska, at dinner. On the 25th the Judge and Mrs. Kibbey were host and hostess to the same party.

Mrs. W. E. Burns of Denver, Colorado, is stopping in the city for a few days to visit friends, before continuing her journey to California.

Mrs. Richard E. Sloan and daughter, Miss Mary have been visiting in Prescott the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Francis of Ft. Worth, Texas, have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Dameron the past week, coming here on their honeymoon trip. The gentleman is a cousin of Mrs. Dameron and is a prominent attorney of his home state.

Mr. Hubert Hunter, city editor of the Tucson Citizen, was in the city Christmas on a visit to his parents. Mr. Hunter was accompanied by his wife and daughter.

E. P. Conway of the Barber Asphalt Paving company spent the past week in Los Angeles with friends.

Mr. A. L. Harris of this city was married a few days ago to Miss May Atterman of Michigan. The wedding occurred at Avalon, Santa Catalina island. The happy couple will make their home in Phoenix.

An elaborate menu was served at the hotel Adams on Christmas and was greatly enjoyed by those who partook of its sumptuousness. Many Phoenix people entertained guests at the hotel in preference to having a dinner at the family home.

The entertainment committee appointed by the Woman's club to care for the welfare of the guests who will attend the federation of Women's clubs to meet in this city the last week in January, is extremely busy preparing for this event of the year. The details of the program have not all been decided upon yet, but it is known that Mrs. J. E. Cowles of Los Angeles, first vice-president of the general federation, will deliver an address on Tuesday evening Jan. 23 at the club, on the topic "General Federation of Women's Clubs—Unity in Diversity." The first business session will convene on Wednesday forenoon and there will be two meetings daily until the adjournment at mid-day Friday, the election of officers occurring on Friday A. M. On Thursday evening the "Japanese Girl" an opera will entertain the visitors and on Friday afternoon they will be taken over the valley on an auto ride.

Mr. H. C. Heighon and daughter, Miss Dorothy, formerly of this city, but for some years residents of Tucson, spent Christmas in Phoenix, guests of W. K. James and family.

Mrs. James is a sister of Mr. Heighon.

The employees of the Savoy theater were certainly happy people on Christmas day, when several automobiles were driven up in front of this popular place of amusement and they were loaded in and taken out to Five Points, where they found the finest dinner that "Dead" and Mrs. J. R. Brought, could procure and have cooked, awaiting them at the restaurant conducted by Mrs. E. B. Vinson. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality of the genial manager of the Savoy and his wife, were Mesdames Nash, Stevens and Abbott, Misses Leta Abbott and Edith Stevens and Messrs. Abbott, De Wolfe, Rustos, Cavanaugh, Ragsdale, Roberts, Lyle Abbott, and Masters Jack Abbott, Robert Nash, Emel Cavanaugh and Elmore Cavanaugh.

Miss Mary Leavell entertained at cards Thursday evening at her home, 1414 W. Adams street. The affair was informal and the guests had much amusement in helping to prepare a fire place supper consisting of "pigs in blankets," toast, cocoa and toasted macaroons. Those who enjoyed Miss Leavell's hospitality were Miss Clara Staley, Miss Albert and Miss Marjorie Leavell, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Wright, Mrs. M. J. House and Messrs. Fred Holmes, Clifford Medox, Warr Young and Jack Edwards.

The banquet and ceremonies attending the installation of the new officers of Arizona lodge number 2 F. and A. M. on St. John's day, occurred Wednesday at the Masonic hall. A six months' attendance contest was decided that evening and the losers served the winners one of the swiftest five dollar a plate banquets, ever held before a hungry hordle in little old Phoenix. Retiring worshipful master, C. W. Wartman, was presented with a past master's jewel in a speech by Mr. George U. Young. The affair was thoroughly enjoyed by all who had the opportunity to attend.

The Bachelors club celebrated Christmas, New Years, the Fourth of July and several other things Friday night at a stag banquet in the Hotel Adams. It was one of those seldom events that are just what they seem to be, only more so. The Bachelors give a party of one kind or another every little while when they feel like
